Shelly Arnett

Tiptonville, TN

I spend a considerable amount of time using the Internet to support lessons I plan for my students. Most of our research for projects is now done using the Internet as well. We would be stepping back if we did not continue to have good access to Internet connections